

Designing for Tomorrow

November 6 and 7, 2019
Carriage House Inn, Calgary

Conference at a Glance

Wednesday, November 6

- Keynote address by Tim Van Seters, Manager, Sustainable Technologies at the Toronto and Region Conservation Authority
- Studies demonstrating stormwater impacts and potential for green infrastructure mitigation
- Planning and Strategy Initiatives
- Pond and Wetland innovations
- Feedback from the 2018 ALIDP Pond and Wetland Summit
- Exhibitors Reception
- Banquet

Thursday, November 7

- Products including pretreatment devices, high flow bioretention, and permeable paving
- Resilient Landscaping featuring pollinator habitat, carbon sequestration, intermittent stream rejuvenation after removal of grazing pressure, and low-input landscaping
- Green Infrastructure case studies from Alberta and Minnesota

POSTERS | EXHIBITORS RECEPTION | BANQUET | NETWORKING

Concurrent Certified Inspector in Erosion and Sediment Control Training (CAN-CISEC)

https://sustainabletechnologies.ca/event/in-class-certified-inspector-of-sediment-and-erosion-control-training-and-exam-calgary/?instance_id=3781

ATTENDEE REGISTRATION

<https://dft19.eventbrite.ca>

PARTNER $250 day/$450 full

NON-PARTNER $300 day/ $550 full

Above rates increase by $50 after September 30th

STUDENT $75 per day or $75 for full registration with a poster

Exhibits $800 includes one swappable registration

Banquet $50 (Plus Ones Welcome)

SPONSORSHIP, EXHIBIT AND ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

<https://supportdft19.eventbrite.ca>

